New York, Oct. 22,—Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst addressed her first American mass meeting last night at Madi-son Square Garden, and explained why militant methods for the cause of wom-an suffrage are followed in England, an suffrage are followed in England, but not in America, and defended the employment of such methods.

Only through dynamic means, she declared, could English women hope to secure laws dealing with white slavery, industrial evils and other conditions affecting women.

Preparations had been made for an overflow meeting at Madison Square Garden, but the big hall with a seating capacity of about 12,000 persons, was scarcely one-quarter filled. This was attributed by the suffragets to the uncertainty existing until almost the litt certainty existing until almost the 11th hour as to whether the immigration authorities would allow Mrs Pankhurst to land in this country.

Some leading suffragets of this country and a few "hunger strikers" sat with Mrs. Pankhurst on a stage draped with a tri-colored flag, bearing the in-scription, "Resistance to Tyranny Is Obedience to God." Wearing small steel prison bar badges, signifying that their militancy had resulted in Jail terms, were Miss Elsie McKenzie and Miss Mary Keegan, English girls and Miss Lucy Burns and Miss Elizabeth Miss Lucy Burns and Miss Elizabeth Freeman, American girls who went to England to fight for "the cause." Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont, Miss Lavina Beck, Miss Sybil Wilbur, Miss Alberta A. Hill, Miss Fola La Follette, Miss Ida Craft and other American suffraget leaders sat with them. Women stood on chairs and frantically waved handkerchiefs and yellow flags before the suffraget leader was permitted to begin her address.

Mrs. Pankhurst told of her experiences at Ellis Island, praising the im-infgration authorities. She declared the work at Ellis Island admirably done and the immigrants cared for there far better than are the poor, allen and native, in Great Britain.

Baltimore, Md., Ost 22.—The militant methods of Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst were criticised by Rov. Dr. Anna Heward Shaw, president of the National Woman's Suffrage association in an address before the Just Government league here. Dr. Shaw made it clear, however, that her disapproval rested on grounds of expediency.

"If I thought I could get the ballot for the women of this country by going out and smashing mail boxes I would do it," said Dr. Shaw. "If a government does not stand for what is good and just it should be overthrown by any means. But whenever womein attempt to use physical force they are at a disadvantage."
